Dr. Richard Cash

Dr. Richard Cash has given hundreds of workshops, presentations, and staff-development sessions throughout the United States, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. The research-based strategies and techniques he offers are proven to increase student achievement. Others have commended his talent for working with teachers to develop engaging and enriching learning environments that can improve student learning. At the end of the day, his greatest passion is helping teachers recognize the various talents all children possess and create learning experiences to allow those talents to flourish. He is considered by many to be an exceptionally engaging, motivating, and enlightening presenter.

What to expect at this training...

The professional learning of the day will go beyond basic teaching strategies and will provide the tools to help differentiate the critical thinking, problem solving, and decision making skills at the core of student learning across all content areas. The advanced K-12 teacher's guide in the book, all participants will receive, will help provide discussion at the district level on how to manage and provide for a range of accommodations for diverse learning capabilities.

The differentiated instruction strategies in this presentation and book will help educators:

- Build achievement motivation and self-regulation
- Set new roles for student and teacher that encourage learner autonomy
- Inspire your students' passion and creativity
- Employ cutting-edge techniques for designing rigorous E4 curriculum (Effective, Engaging, Enriching, and Exciting)
- Consider a 3 year planning process for differentiation

Key features of the book that all will receive

- A solid, up-to-date research base that builds on the work of respected experts such as Carol Dweck, Robert Sternberg, Carol Ann Tomlinson, Diane Heacox, Benjamin Bloom, Joseph Renzulli, Robert Marzano, Edward Deci, and Barry Zimmerman
- More than 50 illustrative figures, diagrams, and sample lessons in all content areas provided in the book
- Digital content includes over 40 reproducible forms, templates, handouts, and walk-through checklists materials for a train the trainer model
